Talent Shows

We'd like to borrow your children for an hour, each day of this month

No, we're not teaching karate, or taking them to swimming. There's no talk of singing or dancing either!

What we'll be doing instead, is let them get imaginative and teach us... stuff like

How did the elephant get its trunk?

- Or how to solve problem
- Or write book reviews
- Or how to create new animal
- Or how to be responsible individuals
- Or how to make a movie, or hold a press conference...

We could go on, but why don't you find out from your child instead???!!!
